

Award Leader Training October 13th 2018

This training for new Award leaders will take place at the Award office and is meant for everyone who want to coach participants of the International Award programme. Taking this course is compulsory for anyone who wants to start or work in an Award unit in the Netherlands. The duration of the training is only one day. With the people who start a new Award Unit, a follow-up meeting will be arranged to talk about unit-specific needs.

The training will cover the following aspects:

An extensive explanation of the programme and a deeper examination of all the sections and possibilities in the International Award for Young People.

Discussing the role of the Award leader in organising the programme and supervising the participants, the young people.

The national and international aspect of the organisation and the opportunities

Discussing many examples, situations and questions to make all the information concrete.

The follow-up meeting with Award leaders who are starting a new Award Unit will focus on the preparation of the start-up phase and further plans of the programme at the school or within the organisation.
